| 1. dogs; animals | 3. people; Italians |
| 2. shoes; leather items | 4. buildings; hotels |

C. Fact and Opinion. Read each sentence below. If the sentence expresses a fact, write F in the blank. If the sentence expresses an opinion, write O in the blank. Remember, a fact can be tested and found to be true or false. An opinion cannot be proved to be true or false since it expresses the thoughts or feelings of the speaker. No one can really know whether the speaker thinks or feels a certain way except him, and so no one can prove whether or not he is telling the truth.
